TELEGRAPHIC

(Evening Despatches to the Times.)

Vallandigham Nominated for Governor of Ohio—From the Army of the Potomac—Rebels being Heavily Reinforced—Battle at Louisville, Ky.—Defeat of the Rebels—Vallandigham Reported Going to Nassau—Meeting of Tennesseeans in Bragg's Army—Bragg Publicly wishes those Tennesseeans in H—l—Stuart's Official Despatches and Papers Captured—Front of a Rebel Ostensive Movement.

MURFREESBORO, 11th.

The Chattanooga Rebel of the 6th, in an article on the situation, declares the Breckinridge's corps has reported to Bragg, and that Johnston was so sure in his position that he needed no more troops.

It is supposed that Breckinridge's troops never left Bragg's camp. It is known that regiments from two of Breckinridge's brigades figured in the recognizance made on the 4th of June. We have no later news from Vicksburg. The rebel pickets refused to exchange papers, and it is suspected that the latest issues contained news of a reverse at Vicksburg.

Citizens from Shelbyville, who reported the surrender, state positively that it had been published in the rebel papers. The Chattanooga papers of the 7th and 8th contain nothing regarding it.

NEW YORK, 12th.

The opinion is entertained in quarters likely to be published with the facts, that not a man has been detached from Bragg's army since Gen Grant opened the siege of Vicksburg. General Rosecrans has been so watchful, has found means to keep himself so strongly posted as to Bragg's designs and has so constantly threatened him with an attack that he has deemed it imprudent to weaken the strength in the slightest, even for the purpose of attempting to relieve Vicksburg.

A despatch has been received here from an officer engaged in the cavalry fight at Beverly Ford, stating that among the rebels killed was Gen Stuart himself. The report needs confirmation.

Two companies were added to the colored regiment yesterday. This makes four regiments now mustered into the United States service here. Steps are now being taken to raise a full brigade of colored troops in the District of Columbia.

The Herald's special from headquarters army of Potomac, 11th, says our forces remain in possession of the line south of Fredericksburg, the enemy manifesting no inclination to attack us. Our defences are impregnable, and it is not believed that the rebels will risk an assault. Work has been suspended on their fortifications. Their troops, however, display themselves extensively, and are evidently in large force. No firing has been heard since Tuesday evening, and this morning the picket guard prevailed.

A number of prisoners arrived last night from the upper fords. Most of them are members of the 4th Virginia cavalry. Stuart's attempt to make a raid into Pennsylvania is frustrated.

Lee is in the vicinity of Culpepper with a large body of infantry, and a heavy force remains near Fredericksburg.

Troops from the Blackwater, North and South Carolina and elsewhere have been hurried up to the army of Northern Virginia, and there can be no doubt that Lee contemplates a grand and desperate effort for the immediate relief of General Hooker's army.

The Tribune's letter from the army of the Potomac, June 10th, says, the Rappahannock was again crossed by detachments from the 1st, 3d, and 6th corps early yesterday morning, near Kelly's Ford, without the loss of a single man.

The first to cross were portions of the 6th Michigan, 6th New York, and 6th Maine regiments. The remainder of our forces, in all perhaps a division afterwards forded the river.

NEW YORK, 12th.

The Herald's letter reports the capture off Mobile of the sloop Isabel loaded with cotton—She was cut out under the guns of Fort Morgan by boats from the S R Cuyler. Also the schrs Ripple and Hunter, captured by the Kinsmen, and burning of the rebel steamer Cuba to escape from the Desoto. The two from Havana bound to Mobile with arms and ammunition. The crew escaped in a boat.

HALIFAX, 12th.

The following is the new government gazetted today—

Johnston, Attorney General; Tupper, Provincial Secretary; Henry, Solicitor General; McNab, Receiver General; Leristocte, Financial Secretary; McKinnon, McFarlane and Shannon, in the Cabinet without office; McDonald, Commissioner of Railways; Grant, Queen's Printer.

CINCINNATI, 12th.

The Ohio Democratic State Convention met at Columbus yesterday, and was very largely attended. Ex-Gov Morrill presided. Hon C L Vallandigham was nominated for Governor on the first ballot, receiving 448 out of 461 votes. His nomination was then made unanimous.

Hon Geo E Pugh was nominated for Lieut Governor by acclamation. The Convention then completed the State ticket by making the following nominations—For Auditor, Wm Hubbard; for State Treasurer, H S Knapp; for Judge of Supreme Court, P Van Trump.

Resolutions were unanimously adopted protesting against President Lincoln's emancipation proclamation; condemning martial law in loyal States where the war does not exist; denouncing the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus; protesting in earnest terms against the banishment of Hon. C L Vallandigham; and calling on the President to recall him and restore him all his rights as a citizen of the United States; declaring that we will hail with delight a desire of the seceded States to return to their allegiance, and that we will co-operate with the citizens of those States to restore peace; and that we insist upon the freedom of speech and the freedom of the press and a right of trial by jury.

CINCINNATI, 12th.

A spirited engagement took place at Monticello, Ky., on the 9th inst. Our troops under Col Kautz had driven the rebels from Monticello and were falling back towards Cumberland river, where the rebels rallied in force, and attacked our rear guard. Our forces retreated slowly. Reinforcements subsequently came to their relief, when a desperate hand to hand engagement ensued, lasting two hours, and resulting in the defeat of the rebels.

Our loss was 20 killed and wounded. The rebel loss is not stated.

CINCINNATI, 12th.

Gov Morton has issued a proclamation to the people of Indiana solemnly warning all persons against resistance to the Government in any form, or hindering federal officers in the discharge of their duties.

The rebel prisoners in Camp Morton were transferred to Camp Chase yesterday.

About 50 East Tennesseean conscripts took the oath of allegiance and joined the 71st Indiana regiment.

CINCINNATI, 12th.

It is understood that Vallandigham has proceeded to some southern port, from which he intends to take his departure for Nassau.

HALIFAX, 12th.

The National Division of the Sons of Temperance of North America commenced their 19th annual session here today. Seventy-five members are in attendance, comprising representations from Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, District of Columbia, Ohio, Illinois, Kentucky, Missouri, Canada East, Canada West, New Brunswick, Newfoundland and Nova Scotia.

A public reception was given this evening.—The session will probably continue four or five days.

PHILADELPHIA, 11th.

The Bulletin's despatch from Murfreesboro' 11th, says a lady who came within our lines states that the rebels are in receipt of very desponding news from Vicksburg, and that well known rebels in Chattanooga and Shelbyville are selling off their goods and property to non-combatants at great sacrifices in anticipation of our speedy occupation of those places.

Cheatham's division is three miles this side of Shelbyville, and Cheatham appears to be very uneasy.

The rebel Tennessee regiments are utterly demoralized. Bragg had been ordered to go to reinforce Johnston, when the men and some of the officers mutinied.

Bragg then ordered out a brigade to surround the mutineers. He swore he would hang ten men a day until discipline was restored.

Bragg also said in the hearing of a whole brigade that he wished these Tennesseeans were in hell. There is great excitement over the affair in the vicinity of Bragg's army.

HARRISBURG, 12th.

General Couch has assumed command of the department of Susquehanna. He summons for the defence of the State, citizens between 18 and 60, to organize all army corps embracing artillery and infantry, to serve during the pleasure of the President or continuance of the war.—When not required in active service to defend the department, they will be returned to their homes, subject to the call of the commanding General.

NEW YORK, 12th.

A correspondent from Warrenton Junction sends the following to the Philadelphia Inquirer:

On Wednesday, a flag of truce was sent over by General Pleasanton to General Stuart, requesting permission to send over four of our surgeons to attend to the wounded and recover the bodies of a number of officers.

Stuart replied that the dead had all been decently buried, that the wounded were all humanely treated by his own surgeons, and the prisoners had all been sent to Richmond.

The rebels stated as an objection to having our surgeons enter their lines, that one of our surgeons enter their lines, that one of our surgeons had returned with information which had been used against them. They were willing to submit them, provided the surgeons would go to Richmond with the prisoners and remain some time before being released.

Stuart's official desk was captured by General Gregg's command. It contained a large number of his official orders. The number of his men and their government despatches showed the design to engage in offensive operations.

The rebel General Stuart narrowly escaped being captured, as said by his side being taken by General Gregg. Stuart was dressed as a private, and one side said we could have caught Stuart as easily as they caught him, but no one recognized him in his disguise.

The first to cross were portions of the 6th Michigan, 6th New York, and 6th Maine regiments. The remainder of our forces, in all perhaps a division afterwards forded the river.

NEW YORK, 12th.

The Herald's letter reports the capture off Mobile of the sloop Isabel loaded with cotton—She was cut out under the guns of Fort Morgan by boats from the S R Cuyler. Our troops under Col Kautz had driven the rebels from Monticello and were falling back towards Cumberland river, where the rebels rallied in force, and attacked our rear guard. Our forces retreated slowly. Reinforcements subsequently came to their relief, when a desperate hand to hand engagement ensued, lasting two hours, and resulting in the defeat of the rebels.

Our loss was 20 killed and wounded. The rebel loss is not stated.

CINCINNATI, 12th.

Gov Morton has issued a proclamation to the people of Indiana solemnly warning all persons against resistance to the Government in any form, or hindering federal officers in the discharge of their duties.

The rebel prisoners in Camp Morton were transferred to Camp Chase yesterday.

About 50 East Tennesseean conscripts took the oath of allegiance and joined the 71st Indiana regiment.

CINCINNATI, 12th.

It is understood that Vallandigham has proceeded to some southern port, from which he intends to take his departure for Nassau.

HALIFAX, 12th.

The National Division of the Sons of Temperance of North America commenced their 19th annual session here today. Seventy-five members are in attendance, comprising representations from Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, District of Columbia, Ohio, Illinois, Kentucky, Missouri, Canada East, Canada West, New Brunswick, Newfoundland and Nova Scotia.

A public reception was given this evening.—The session will probably continue four or five days.

PHILADELPHIA, 11th.

The Bulletin's despatch from Murfreesboro' 11th, says a lady who came within our lines states that the rebels are in receipt of very desponding news from Vicksburg, and that well known rebels in Chattanooga and Shelbyville are selling off their goods and property to non-combatants at great sacrifices in anticipation of our speedy occupation of those places.

Cheatham's division is three miles this side of Shelbyville, and Cheatham appears to be very uneasy.

The rebel Tennessee regiments are utterly demoralized. Bragg had been ordered to go to reinforce Johnston, when the men and some of the officers mutinied.

Bragg then ordered out a brigade to surround the mutineers. He swore he would hang ten men a day until discipline was restored.

Bragg also said in the hearing of a whole brigade that he wished these Tennesseeans were in hell. There is great excitement over the affair in the vicinity of Bragg's army.

HARRISBURG, 12th.

General Couch has assumed command of the department of Susquehanna. He summons for the defence of the State, citizens between 18 and 60, to organize all army corps embracing artillery and infantry, to serve during the pleasure of the President or continuance of the war.—When not required in active service to defend the department, they will be returned to their homes, subject to the call of the commanding General.

NEW YORK, 12th.

A correspondent from Warrenton Junction sends the following to the Philadelphia Inquirer:

On Wednesday, a flag of truce was sent over by General Pleasanton to General Stuart, requesting permission to send over four of our surgeons to attend to the wounded and recover the bodies of a number of officers.

Stuart replied that the dead had all been decently buried, that the wounded were all humanely treated by his own surgeons, and the prisoners had all been sent to Richmond.

The rebels stated as an objection to having our surgeons enter their lines, that one of our surgeons enter their lines, that one of our surgeons had returned with information which had been used against them. They were willing to submit them, provided the surgeons would go to Richmond with the prisoners and remain some time before being released.

Stuart's official desk was captured by General Gregg's command. It contained a large number of his official orders. The number of his men and their government despatches showed the design to engage in offensive operations.

The rebel General Stuart narrowly escaped being captured, as said by his side being taken by General Gregg. Stuart was dressed as a private, and one side said we could have caught Stuart as easily as they caught him, but no one recognized him in his disguise.

NEW YORK, 12th.

The Louisville Journal of the 10th says Gen. Grant has been largely reinforced, and additional troops are still being hurried forward to his assistance. The movement of troops through our city for the past two days, both by land and water, have been very active. The strengthening of army of the Mississippi has not weakened in any degree the defences of Kentucky.

Speaking of diamonds reminds me of a little affair that has occupied the tongues of the gossips, for the last day or two, of the Grand Hotel. Some two months ago there arrived here in state a showy, Cremorneish looking lady, who called herself Princess ——, and took apartments au premier at one hundred francs a day. Her income was registered and reported at the office at 75,000 francs a year. She was soon after joined by a Spanish cavalier, whose rent-roll was announced at $60,000 a year. Presently the Princess began to make what is called in vulgar American parlance "a big splurge"—magnificent carriages, horses, footmen, &c., with one of the most amusing toilettes in Paris. Whenever she made her appearance in the "Grand Cour d'Honneur of the hotel for a drive there was always a crowd of star (and garter) gazers to see the Princess mount her carriage, as she always placed her foot on the upper step, thereby displaying a rich show of fine ole nes, &c. Scarcely ever did she appear twice in the same costume, which was of the richest and costliest description, with gaiters that always matched the dress, and gloves and parasol that matched the bonnet. But, alas! mercer-like, the lady's career was as brief as brilliant. The equipage was hired at 1000 francs a month, and jewelers and dress-makers' bills began to come in. The espionage of the hotel is perfect; and when the Princess began to part with her diamonds the director knew it, and there came the gentle notice that her apartments were engaged to another party on a certain day. The denouement is brief. The Princess is gone, leaving only the memory of her ephemeral splendor and a hundred thousand francs of debt. Such is life in Paris.—Cor. Boston Post.

The last Boston notion is the Monster Organ, which is the most perfect and comprehensive work of its kind in the world, being the combined result of the experience of all the noted builders of the world, costing some $50,000 or $60,000. It is to be completed and put up in the Music Hall, by next October.

At the recent battle of Fort Hudson General Dow was wounded early in the action in the right arm, near the shoulder, by a musket ball; and later in the day a rifle bullet passed through his left thigh, two thirds of the way above the knee. He was also slightly grazed on the ankle. Letters received by his family from Fort Hudson, under date of the 27th ult, after the battle, state that he was comfortable; and that unless the ol mate should affect him unfavorably, no fear need be entertained as to the result of his injuries.—Portland Press.

CHINESE VICTORIES. The rebels cannot quite come up in the Chinese lying and boasting of their victories. The following is a translation of a Chinese account of the repulse of the British and French at Taku. The writer of it evidently believed in the principle that "what is worth doing at all is worth doing well"—that if he praised Hien Fung as silk or exaggerated matters at all, he might as well do so effectually. The English force on the occasion is put down at 743 ships carrying 811,817 guns and 1,721,631 men, all of whom, save nine, were killed by 100 braves who were sent against them:

In the fifth moon of the tenth year of the reign of Hien Fung, the wisest and the greatest Emperor that the world has yet known, if we except the Lord who now reigns, and who is to all his predecessors, as the sun is to a paper lantern, it was determined by the Emperor, whose heart was big, and who loved his people, to drive out of his dominions, which means from off the face of the world, all foreign devils and barbarians, who, by cunning devices and falsehood, had gained admission into the land. Now, these foreign devils and barbarians became afraid, and they prepared a humble petition praying to be allowed to send deputies to offer tribute and submission to the Ruler of the Universe. When the Lord of Ten Thousand Years heard of this audacious request, his anger was aroused, and he ordered that when these foreigners came they should be slain. It is true, and all men should know, that far away across a sea which the stupid barbarians call the Red, because its waters are blue, there are some islands inhabited by savages, who are called English, French, Americans and other vile names. These lands are remote and very poor, so much so that, although under the Imperial sceptre, the Ruler of the World had taken pity on them, and allowed their people to dwell in peace and piggishness. Great was the goodness and the wisdom of the Emperor Hien Fung! But these foreign devils have wicked hearts, and they came in many ships and with many soldiers and tried to create fear among the people; and three of their great men—the greatest no greater than a second class white button mandarin—presumed to approach the shores of the Empire, even unto the mouth of the Peiho, and demanded permission to throw themselves at the foot of the celestial throne. The names of these men were Lau-Ghin, (Lord Elgin,) an Englishman, Bo-Glo, (Baron

Supporting the Government an Act of Partisanship.

The Augusta Age travels a long distance out of its way to make a personal attack upon Lewis Barker, Esq., of Stetson, for his speech at the reception of the Second Maine.

We copy a part of the article in the Age:

Mr Lewis Barker "came forward from the ranks of Knights Templar," and gave us to understand by his speech that the teachings of the Masonic institutions were such as to oblige all of that order to endorse every act of the administration. Mr. Barker is the first man, we believe, who has endeavored to prostitute the high and holy offices of Masonry to partisan and political purposes, and his attempts to do so, show how forgetful he is of all else but party. We hope this attempt on the part of this ov demagogue to make Masonry a tool of political parties, will meet with the signal failure it deserves. Let not such men as Barker "steal the livery of Heaven to serve the Devil in."

This is a total misrepresentation of Mr. Barker's language. What he did say in relation to Masons and Masonry, was precisely this—and it is all that he did say:

Among the first teachings of our Masonic institutions is the instruction never to be concerned in plots and conspiracies against government, but at all times to be obedient to the laws of the country in which we live; and it is a source of pride that so many of the order have obeyed the teachings and rushed to the rescue of our Government from this wicked and causeless rebellion.

Is there anything here about "endorsing every act of the Administration?"

It will be seen that the language used by Mr. Barker is almost identical with the following from the "Ancient Charges" of Masonry:

In the State, you are to be a quiet and peaceful subject, true to your government and your country; you are not to countenance disloyalty or rebellion, but patiently submit to legal authority, and conform with cheerfulness to the government of the country in which you live

Is there anything in this to warrant the attack of the Age upon Mr. Barker? Is there anything in his language, or in the teachings of Masonry, as above quoted, to justify this backbiting sympathizer with rebellion in charging Mr. B. with prostituting masonic teachings to partisan purposes, or on the other hand misrepresenting the character of those teachings? On the contrary, the Age itself is in the peculiar position of saying that it is "prostituting masonry to political purposes," to declare that Masons "must not be concerned in conspiracies" "against the Government," and that "it is a "source of pride that so many of the order "have obeyed the teachings and rushed to the "rescue of our Government."

According to this democratic organ, the opposing of plots and conspiracies, and "rushing to the support of the Government" are mere political movements—"or a member of the order is denounced as a "low demagogue," simply and solely for inculcating that duty in the very language of Masonry.

There is no escape for the Age from this awkward position. It cannot have the excuse of saying that it did not know the precise language of Mr B. His words were exactly reported in the Whig; and that report was the only knowledge which the Age had of the speech.

The Conscription. We see it stated that it will not be necessary for any person who is enrolled to establish his claim to exemption until he receives a printed notice informing him that he has been drafted, and then he will have ten days to show that he is not liable or able to perform military service.

A recent letter from Washington says it has been decided to construe the conscription law so as to give every person drafted the right to pay to the Government the maximum sum of $300, or procure a substitute. If a substitute is accepted (the acceptance depending altogether upon physical ability) it exempts the person so procuring one from being again called upon during the whole period for which he was drafted; but if the $300 is paid instead, then the person is liable to be again taken upon any subsequent draft. The power of the President to order a draft as frequently as he may deem it necessary, is unlimited.

We learn the Belfast Journal and all other upper-Penobscot papers to understand, once for all, that the action of the Republican State Committee in calling a "Union" State Convention, meets our unqualified approbation.—Bangor Whig.

Then why do you indulge in flings at the Free Press, which also regards it with unqualified approbation? What two persons are perfectly agreed, what chance is there for a quarrel?—Belfast Journal.

We have had no disagreement with the Free Press as to the propriety of the call for a Union State Convention. In the absence of the editor a paragraph did appear in the Whig reflecting (and we think justly) upon what appeared to be assumption on the part of the Free Press to dictate as to the candidate who should be nominated by the Convention.

Two Destinations When Vallandigham reached the boundary line between our pickets and those of the enemy, he said—

I am a citizen of the United States, and loyal to them. I want you to understand that you leave here a prisoner to the Confederate authorities.

The following is a later despatch:

St. Louis, May 30.—Mr. Vallandigham is a guest at General Bragg's headquarters at Shelbyville.

Five companies of Colonel Montgomery's colored (South Carolina) regiment went on an expedition up the Combahee river, recently, and after destroying a large amount of rebel property returned with 829 contrabands, who had succeeded in getting on board the steamers. All along the route the slaves rushed to the banks of the river, and begged to be taken on board—notwithstanding the overseers and assistants were seen endeavoring to drive them back with whips and revolvers.

The Chattanooga Rebel devotes a late leader to advocating in all cases the black flag for black men. An article on Tennessee affairs says—"On the fate of Vicksburg hangs the fate of Tennessee. If we play eternal smash with Grant, good bye to poor Rosecrans; but if Grant gives Pember on his quietus, then farewell, a long farewell, to the proposed re-occupation of Nashville and Southern Kentucky.

Let the rebels look out for the black flag of the blank men if they deliberately adopt the policy of destroying colored prisoners. It is a game which the negroes will have it in their power to make a terrible one for the South. If anything will produce a slave insurrection, merciless and unsparing in its character, it will be precisely this brutal and savage course towards the colored soldiers—and it is very certain that in battle these colored troops will be as unsparing as their enemies. They will treat the rebels just as the rebels treat them.

Bear Killed. A bear was shot in Buckfield last week, by Mr. Charles Gammon. We learn that the children of Mr. Decoster ran into the house saying that a large dog had chased them. Their mother found it was a bear, had had frightened them, and informed the neighbors. Mr. Gammon followed with his dog; and shot the bear in the woods a short distance from the house.—Oxford Democrat.

Rebuilt. Mr. J. O. Marble has rebuilt his Powder Mills at Buckfield, and has commenced running one six weeks, and the other two, without accident. He is sanguine that he has now arranged his cylinders so that there is little danger of an explosion hereafter. We trust that his perseverance will be rewarded.

Mr. Marble is interested in the Camden mills which he says were blown up seven times, before they came into possession of the present proprietors.

Since the above was in type, a small shingle mill, that had run about two weeks, has blown up. Loss about $500. This explosion proves the incorrectness of the theory that small mills may be run more safely than large ones

Shooting Accident. A sad accident occurred in Norway, on Saturday last, by which a son of M. G. and Betsey French, lost his life—It appears that the boy, in company with another youth, was out with a gun. His companion, seeing some object, which he wished to shoot, asked French to let him take the gun—In passing it he held the muzzle towards himself, and by some means it was discharged, the contents passing through the brain, and causing instant death. He was an only son

The Colored Heroes of Port Hudson. The New York Tribune in speaking of the conduct of the black troops at Port Hudson, says: Nobly done, Second Regiment of Louisiana Native Guards! though you failed to carry the Rebel works against overwhelming numbers, you did not charge and fight and fall in vain! That heap of six hundred corpses, lying there dark and grim and silent before and within the Rebel works, is a better Proclamation of Freedom than even President Lincoln's. A race ready to die thus was never yet retained in bondage, and never can be. Thus passes one regiment of blacks to death and everlasting fame; but a hundred more are this day mustering to replace it. These will be in the field by September and twice as many forming behind them

The Ohio Democratic Convention which assembled at Columbus on Thursday, nominated Vallandigham for Governor, by acclamation, Ex-Senator Pugh for Lieutenant-Governor, and Judge Van Trump for Supreme Judge. How important then to have at hand a certain antidote to all these complaints—Experience proves that this exists in Wistar's Balsam, to an extent not found in any other remedy: however severe the suffering, the application of this soothing, healing and wonderful Balsam at once vanquishes the disease and restores the sufferer to wonted health.

From a Highly Respectable Apothecary in Bangor.

Bangor, Oct. 4, 1860

Messrs S. W. Fowle & Co.—Please send me a few dozen of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. The demand for this excellent preparation for diseases of the Throat and Lungs, renders it necessary that I should purchase a considerable quantity of it. It has an enviable reputation which it has acquired upon its own merits alone. My customers assure me of their unlimited confidence in the medicine, and I consider it without a superior in the list of similar specifics. The fact of its having been before the public so long, and the demand still continuing, is proof positive of its appreciation by the afflicted portion of mankind. Respectfully yours
BENJ. C. FROST.

General Orders No. 105

The organization of an Invalid Corps is hereby authorized.

This Corps shall consist of Companies, and if it shall be smaller be thought best of Battalions.

The Companies shall be made up from the following sources, viz

First. By taking those officers and enlisted men of companies now in the field (whether actually present or temporarily absent) who, from wounds received in action or disease contracted in the line of duty, are unfit for field service but are still capable of effective garrison duty, or such other light duty as may be required of an Invalid Corps—Regimental Commanders shall at once muster, from information received from their Medical Officers and from their own knowledge, rolls (according to the Form furnished) of the names of all the officers and enlisted men under their commands who fulfill the following conditions:

1. That they are unfit for active field service on account of wounds or disease contracted in the line of duty, this fact being certified by a Medical Officer in the service, after personal examination.

2. That they are fit for garrison duty (as being likewise certified by the Medical Officer, as above, after personal examination.

3. That they are, in the opinion of their Commanding Officers, meritorious and deserving.

These rolls shall be certified by the Examining Surgeon and Regimental Commander and transmitted, through the regular channels of military correspondence, to the Provost Marshal General of the United States.

The Regimental Commander shall enter in the column of remarks, opposite each officer's name on the roll, a statement as to the general character of the officer for intelligence, industry, sobriety, and attention to duty, and all intermediate Commanders shall endorse thereon such facts as they may possess in the case, or if they have none, they shall state how far they are willing to rely upon the opinion of the officer or officers making the recommendations. Joint rolls shall be forwarded from time to time, whenever the number of men fulfilling the foregoing requirements by the exigencies of the service may render it expedient.

Second. By taking those officers and enlisted men still in service and borne on the rolls, but who are absent from duty in Hospitals or Convalescent Camps or furloughed under the control of Medical Officers. In these cases the Medical Officer in attendance shall prepare the rolls according to Form, on which the names of officers and men from the same Regiment on a roll by themselves, and send them, with the certificate of the surgeon in charge signed, to the proper Regimental Commander, who will forward them, as heretofore specified, subject to the same conditions and requirements. And in any case the Regimental Commander shall think all others unfit, in point of character, to continue in the service of the Invalid Corps, though diseased and disabled by the service, he will state the objections in the column of remarks, and note the affair proper before signing the certificate. No officer or enlisted man not in the service, but absent and beyond the reach of the Medical Officer in charge of a Hospital or Convalescent Camp desires to enter the Invalid Corps, he will take the course indicated below for those who have been honorably discharged from the service.

Third. By accepting those officers and enlisted men who have been honorably discharged on account of wounds or disease contracted in the line of duty, and who desire to re-enter the service. In the case of an officer, application for appointment must be made to the Provost Marshal General of the United States through the officer designated as Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General in the State. To facilitate examination of this kind will be considered only the following conditions are completely fulfilled:

1. That the applicant produces the certificate of the surgeon of the board of Examiners for the District in which he resides, that he is unfit for active field duty on account of wounds or disease and is not liable to draft, but is fit for garrison duty.

2. That he furnish evidence of honorable discharge on account of wounds or disability contracted in the line of duty.

3. That he produce recommendations from the Regimental, Brigade, and Division Commanders under whom he formerly served, that he is worthy of being re-instated in the service, and that he is competent to the duty required.

Fourth. That he furnish evidence of his present physical ability to perform the duty required.
